

BUNNY GIVEN NINE-HUNDRED DOLLAR BURIAL

August 26, 1997 (David Cloud, Fundamental Baptist Information Service, P.O. Box 610368, Port Huron, MI 48061, 866-295-4143, fbns@wayoflife.org) -

A pet bunny killed by a neighbor's dog was given a $905 funeral August 23 in Los Angeles, California. The bunny, named Tucson, was attacked by the dog a week earlier. The owners of the dog paid $450 toward the funeral expenses, and a pet cemetery provided the balance. The price of the funeral included a laser-etched picture of the rabbit on a tombstone. Tucson was buried in the same cemetery as Hopalong Cassidy's horse Topper, Humphry Bogart's dog Droopy, and Charlie Chaplin's cat Boots.

This reminds us of how insane our country has gotten. Large numbers of people in this sin-sick, Bible-ignorant nation do not know the proper difference between a man and a woman, or between homosexuality and marriage, or even between a man and an animal. The fact is that animals do not have an eternal soul. They are not made in the image of God. Man is not an animal, though he often acts like one. An animal cannot have a personal relationship with God, but a man can, through the cross of Jesus Christ. When an animal dies, it ceases to exist; but when a man dies he lives forever either in Heaven or in Hell, depending on His relationship with God through Jesus Christ.

In the Way of Life Encyclopedia of the Bible & Christianity there is a detailed study on what the Bible says about animals. This is available from Way of Life Literature, and is described at the Way of Life web site -- <http://wayoflife.org>
